

RHEOLAU/RULES

1. That the Society be called by the name of 'THE LAMPETER AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY' and that it consists of a President, Vice-President, Patrons, Secretary, Treasurer and Members.

2. That a person be admitted a Patron of the Society on subscribing annually the sum of £12.00 or £18.00 for dual membership.

3. Any member being detected in an attempt to impose upon the Society shall forfeit all Premiums due to him/her, and be liable to be expelled from the Society.

4. That the Annual Membership of £5.00 Subscriptions shall be due and payable on the first day of May in each year, and the first subscription, whenever made shall be considered one year from the first day of May preceding the time of entry. Every person who has given, or may give his/her name as a Member of the Society, is, and shall be deemed as such, and his/her subscription be considered and justly due to the Society until he/she gives six months' notice to the Secretary in writing, of his/her intention to withdraw.

5. That no Member be allowed to compete for any Premium who has not paid his/her Subscription previous to the day of entry.

6. That no political discussion or any observation tending to impugn the decision of the Judges or Umpire, to be allowed to take place at any meeting of the Society.

7. That the Members of the Committee meet periodically as required. The Annual General Meeting of the Society to be held in the Autumn. Due notice of these meetings will be given to members.

8. The Servants in charge of Stock must see that they are properly placed and secured in the place allocated to them, and that the number on the ticket corresponds with the stall or pen in which they are placed, and those in charge of Stock are particularly requested not to leave at any time during the Show the stock which they have in their charge. The Society, its officers and servants will not be responsible for any error or mistakes that may be made in placing, penning or securing the stock.

9. Stewards are not allowed to lead their animals in the Judging Ring with their badges on.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO LIVESTOCK AND OTHER EXHIBITS
ENTERED AT THE SOCIETY'S SHOW HEALTH AND SAFETY
AT WORK ACT 1974

SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

1. Special attention is directed to the safety requirements set out in the Health and Safety at Work etc., Act 1974 and any subsequent legislation. The Society holds exhibitors wholly responsible for the observance and statutory regulations governing the livestock and other exhibits, exhibited by them. All exhibitors are accepted for adjudication on the understanding that they are capable of complying with the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the regulations which come under that Act. Failure to comply with the statutory regulations will mean that the exhibitor will be asked to remove him/herself and his/her exhibits from the Showground.
2. Persons are admitted to the Showground at their own risk and whilst every endeavour is taken to ensure their safety, the Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by negligence of the Society, it's servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expenses, however caused.
3. Persons are admitted entry to the Show Vehicle Parks at their own risk and vehicles and their accessories and contents are admitted to and left in the Show Vehicle Parks at the owner's risk, and while every endeavour is taken to ensure the safety thereof, the Society will not (safe for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Society, it's servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss or damage to property and any other loss of, damage, cost and expenses however caused.
4. The Society, it's officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any person whatsoever while upon the Society's premises or while leaving the same, for any damage or loss, however caused, to the property of any such person, or for any injury, fatal or otherwise, to any such person.
5. The Society, it's officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any accident, damage or loss, however caused, that may occur to any exhibitor or his servants, or to any animal, articles or property brought to the Showground, or while entering or leaving or being carried into or out of the said Showground. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage that may be done to, or occasioned by or arising from any animal, article or property exhibited or brought on to the Showground by him/her and he/she shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions, suits, expenses and claims on account of or in respect of any such damage or injury which may be caused or occasioned. It is therefore recommended that the exhibitors insure against fire and such liabilities as the exhibitor may incur under these regulations.
