RHEOLAU/RULES

1. That the Society be called by the name of ‘THE LAMPETER AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY’ and that it consists of a President, Vice-President, Patrons, Secretary, Treasurer and Members.
2. That a person be admitted a Patron of the Society on subscribing annually the sum of £15.00 or £25.00 for dual membership.
3. Any member being detected in an attempt to impose upon the Society shall forfeit all Premiums due to him/her, and be liable to be expelled from the Society.
4. That no Member be allowed to compete for any Premium who has not paid his/her Subscription previous to the day of entry.
5. That no political discussion or any observation tending to impugn the decision of the Judges or Umpire, to be allowed to take place at any meeting of the Society.
6. That the Members of the Committee meet periodically as required. The Annual General Meeting of the Society to be held in the Autumn. Due notice of these meetings will be given to members.
7. The Servants in charge of Stock must see that they are properly placed and secured in the place allocated to them, and that the number on the ticket corresponds with the stall or pen in which they are placed, and those in charge of Stock are particularly requested not to leave at any time during the Show the stock which they have in their charge. The Society, its officers and servants will not be responsible for any error or mistakes that may be made in placing, penning or securing the stock.
8. Stewards are not allowed to lead their animals in the Judging Ring with their badges on.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

1. Prior entries required in the Horse Section to be in the hands of the Horse Secretary, Miss Carys Jones, Undergrove, Pentrebach, Lampeter SA48 7JR Tel: 07890332716 email: info@lampetershow.co.uk by 16th June 2023 (Entry Form p. 55).
2. All Bulls must be secured by a ring in the nose, and all Cattle must be led.
3. ALL SHEEP (except Lambs which is optional) must have been properly shorn in the course of the current year.
4. Exhibitors must make sure that they are on the Show Field in good time in case of a time or ring alteration.
5. All Dogs to be on a lead.
6. All Horses in Classes where there is a limit of height must be measured in proper shoes, or, if not shod, half-an-inch allowed in lieu of a shoe, and all Horses, where the height is specified, must be measured by the Society's Veterinary Inspector before entering the Judging Ring. All Horses, unless otherwise stated, to be shown in hand.
7. A Grand Parade of Stock will take place in the Ring at 3.30 p.m. approx. Prize money with-held if Prize Winners do not turn out. No stock, etc. to be removed from their Stalls on the day of the Show before the Parade.
8. All objections must be made in writing to the Secretary within one hour of the judging of the particular class, stating the grounds on which the objection is made, and any person lodging an objection must deposit £20.00 with the Secretary, which sum will be with-held if the objection is found to be frivolous, and all objections and questions of dispute shall be referred to the Committee, whose decision shall be final and from which there shall be no appeal, legal or otherwise.
9. Prize Winners in all Sections will be paid on show day.
10. The First Prize may be with-held unless there will be more than two exhibits in each class, except of the recommendation by the Judge.
11. The Show Field will be open to the public at nine o'clock on payment of £10. Children under 14 years of age £2. All cars—FREE PARKING. Re-admission without repayment. Patrons will be admitted free of charge on production of a ticket from the Secretary.
12. ENTRY FEES: Horse Section – See entry form on p. 55 for details. All other Exhibitors to pay at the gate.
13. The Garden Produce and Flowers must have been grown on the Exhibitor's own premises.

14. Any competitor who complains to the Judges as to their decision, or refuses to accept any award made by a Judge, or in any way casts aspersions on the probity of the Judge, shall be liable to have all prizes won by him/her taken away and to be debarred from competing at future shows. All complaints must be made in writing to the Secretary who will place them before the Committee.
15. Neither the Society nor any of its officers or servants shall be in any way responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstances whatsoever) to Exhibitors, or their Servants, or to any exhibits or property brought into the Show Field, or for anything else in connection with or arising out of, or attributable to the Society's Show.
16. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other Loss, Injury or Damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from any Animal or Article exhibited by him/her, and for its description as given in the Catalogue, and shall indemnify the Society against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
17. No animal shall be decorated about the head with Colours other than the Society's Prize Rosettes.
18. That no Exhibitor shall be allowed in the ring except the Steward of the class then being judged and the person in charge of the exhibit.
19. The Committee has power to reject any entry considered detrimental to the interest of the Society.
20. All exhibits to be bona-fide property of the exhibitor or leased to him/her for a period of 3 months prior to entry. The Society reserves the right to call for production of said lease and its interpretation shall be final.
21. Should any error arise by an exhibit entered in the wrong class, the Secretary reserves the right of correcting such error before the judging of the class commences.
22. Should weather conditions make it impossible to hold the Show, the Committee cannot accept responsibility for the expense incurred by exhibitors. The Show will be held unless conditions are so bad that it would be unreasonable to ask exhibitors to subject valuable livestock to the conditions prevailing on the day.
23. Hard hats conforming to the British Standards must be worn in all Ridden Classes and in the Young Handlers (Horse) Section.

THESE CONDITIONS MUST BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO

SPECIAL CONDITION

All Cups not won outright must be returned to the Cup/Trophy Chief Stewards
(as noted on page 3) one month prior to the Show.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO LIVESTOCK AND OTHER EXHIBITS
ENTERED AT THE SOCIETY'S SHOW HEALTH AND SAFETY
AT WORK ACT 1974 SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

1. Special attention is directed to the safety requirements set out in the Health and Safety at Work etc., Act 1974 and any subsequent legislation. The Society holds exhibitors wholly responsible for the observance and statutory regulations governing the livestock and other exhibits, exhibited by them. All exhibitors are accepted for adjudication on the understanding that they are capable of complying with the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the regulations which come under that Act. Failure to comply with the statutory regulations will mean that the exhibitor will be asked to remove him/herself and his/her exhibits from the Showground.
2. Persons are admitted to the Showground at their own risk and whilst every endeavour is taken to ensure their safety, the Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by negligence of the Society, it's servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expenses, however caused.
3. Persons are admitted entry to the Show Vehicle Parks at their own risk and vehicles and their accessories and contents are admitted to and left in the Show Vehicle Parks at the owner's risk, and while every endeavour is taken to ensure the safety thereof, the Society will not (safe for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Society, it's servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss or damage to property and any other loss of, damage, cost and expenses however caused.
4. The Society, it's officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any person whatsoever while upon the Society's premises or while leaving the same, for any damage or loss, however caused, to the property of any such person, or for any injury, fatal or otherwise, to any such person.
5. The Society, it's officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any accident, damage or loss, however caused, that may occur to any exhibitor or his servants, or to any animal, articles or property brought to the Showground, or while entering or leaving or being carried into or out of the said Showground. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage that may be done to, or occasioned by or arising from any animal, article or property exhibited or brought on to the Showground by him/her and he/she shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions, suits, expenses and claims on account of or in respect of any such damage or injury which may be caused or occasioned. It is therefore recommended that the exhibitors insure against fire and such liabilities as the exhibitor may incur under these regulations.

Pineapple Upside Down Cake

2 x 227g tins of pineapple slices	250g syrup
7 glace cherries	175g butter
175g caster sugar	3 eggs
175g self-raising flour	3 tablespoons milk

Method

Heat the oven to gas mark 4, fan 160°C.

Line and grease a 25cm cake tin.

Heat the syrup and pour into base of tin then arrange the pineapple slices on the syrup and place a cherry in the centre of each pineapple.

Cream the butter with the caster sugar until white and fluffy then slowly add the eggs and beat well, then fold in the flour and milk.

Pour the mixture over the pineapple and bake for 35 to 40 minutes until golden.

Remove from oven and allow to cool in the tin for 10 minutes before turning out.
